

New York's BIG SONGHITS

You can go wrong with any "FEIST"
Song

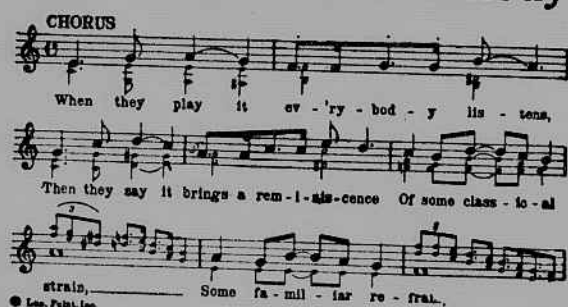

BROADWAY

Get the Big Song Hits of the New Show Hit "What's in a Name?"

(Presented by John Murray Anderson, Inc.)
Lyrics by John Murray Anderson and Jack Yellen
Music by Milton Ager
Staged by John Murray Anderson

ROLL back the piano cover, folks, and try "That Reminiscent Melody," one of the big song hits of that new show hit "What's in a name?"—we'll guarantee you'll roll back the carpet and dance and sing, and sing and dance. It's SOME hit—with a step-lively melody that you can't get away from. Try it. You can get it complete at your dealer's.

"That Reminiscent Melody"

The Big Song Hits of "What's In a Name?"

"That Reminiscent Melody"
"Strike"
"Rap a Tap, Tap"
"By Bridal Veil"
"Across the Bridge of My Dreams"
"Theatrical Blues"
"The Jewels of Pandora"
"In the Year of Fifty Fifty"
"A Young Man's Fancy"
"Without Kissing"
"In Our Japan"
"What's in a Name?"

On Sale Today Wherever Good Music Is Sold, 40c a Copy.

Published by Leo Feist, Inc.,
Feist Building, New York

Beautiful! You'll Love them! - the Song Hits of "Monsieur Beaucaire"

(Gilbert Miller's Great Production founded on the story of Booth Tarkington)

Presented under the Management of A. L. Erlanger
Words by Adrian Ross
Music by André Messager

ASK those who have seen this wonderful operetta at the New Amsterdam Theatre—unanimously all New York agrees that "Monsieur Beaucaire" songs are among the finest ever heard on the New York Stage. "Red Rose," for instance, is inimitably beautiful, a rich, rare tune set to words that are beyond compare. "Red Rose" is the flower of song hits for your piano, phonograph or player piano.

"Red Rose"

The Beautiful "Monsieur Beaucaire" Song Hits

"Red Rose"
"English Maids"
"That's a Woman's Way"
"Gold and Blue and White"
"Honor and Love"
"Under the Moon"
"Philomel"
"I Do Not Know"
"When I Was King of Bath"
"The Honors of War"
"What Are Names?"
"Lightly, Lightly" (Duet)
"Say No More" (Duet)
"We Are Not Speaking Now" (Duet)

On Sale Wherever Good Music Is Sold, 50c a copy, Net.
Complete Vocal Score, $3.00 Net.

Published by Leo Feist, Inc.,
Feist Building, New York

Get These Big Song Hits for Your Piano—T